THIS SUNDAY'S REFLECTION

Look at Zacchaeus in Sunday's Gospel. Notice that he was small of stature, just like each of us. He was so small he had to climb a tree in order to see over the crowd to Jesus. Noticing Zacchaeus in the tree, Jesus laughed. Out loud. He said, in effect, "Zacchaeus, you are up a tree! Come down quick. I want to have dinner in your house tonight. We don't want to dine on a tree branch!"

Remember, Zacchaeus is not a man who "lives right and does right." He is a tax-collector, selfish and held in bad repute. Does God therefore withhold love and grace from him?

No. The Christ of God comes in person to his door and waits patiently for him to scramble down the tree. Christ wants to love the man's goodness into existence. Are you and I bold enough to have the master of the universe over to dinner? Even though our clothes may be torn and dirty? Even small and unworthy as we are?

Let us try it, because God loves well everything he has created. And the Son of Man has come to seek and to save the least specks in the universe.

You and me.

AVVISI ITALIANI

31<sup>a</sup> Domenica Del Tempo Ordinario

31 ottobre 2010

Il Signore ci chiama personalmente. Ci invita all sua mensa perchè, a nostra volta, lo facciamo accomodare nella nostra vita. É la sua presenza, o la nostalgia della sua presenza, che ci dona la forza di convertirci ogni giorno a lui e di camminare alla sua sequela. Zaccheo ci chiama a confrontarci nelle situazioni più quotidiane: sono vissute, facendo spazio a Dio che continuamente viene a salvarci?
