Today, on the second Easter Sunday, we celebrate the Feast of Divine Mercy! To Saint Faustina Our Lord said: “I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. On that day all the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened.” (Diary, 699).

This day we cry out with St. Thomas: “My Lord and My God” (Jn 20:28). On the eighth day of resurrection, the octave day, we celebrate God's solemn commitment, His covenant of merciful love. We ratify the covenant of mercy by receiving the Body and Blood, soul and divinity of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Eucharist. This is the day we celebrate God's mercy!^{SEP}

How do we celebrate the Feast of Mercy?^{SEP}

It was clarified by the words of Our Lord to Saint Faustina:

1. We are to prepare with a novena of chaplets starting on Good Friday.
2. We are to be purified by the "Tribunal of mercy," the Sacrament of Reconciliation (within 8 days before and after the Sunday).
3. We are to venerate the sacred image of the merciful Saviour by gazing upon it as a reminder to trust Jesus and be merciful.
4. We are to perform some works of mercy to others.
5. We are to seal and ratify the covenant of mercy by receiving Holy Communion!

The Church through the Apostolic Penitentiary offers us today the plenary indulgence under normal conditions. Jesus through the revelations to Saint Faustina offers us even more – the extraordinary grace of the renewal of baptismal graces, saying: “I want to grant a complete pardon to the souls that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion on the Feast of My mercy.” (Diary 1109).

While to receive the plenary indulgence we need to have a perfect detachment from sin, even venial sins, in the promise of Jesus all that is necessary is just Confession and Holy Communion on the Feast of Divine Mercy.

Integral to the message of the Divine Mercy is also the the Chaplet, the Holy Hour of Mercy and the Image of Divine Mercy.

The Chaplet.

Our Lord Himself gave us the Chaplet through Saint Faustina, and He made it clear to her that it was for the whole world. He also attached extraordinary promises to its recitation. He said, “Encourage souls to say the Chaplet which I have given you... Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death... When they say this Chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the Just Judge but as the Merciful Saviour... Even if there were a sinner most hardened, if he were to recite this Chaplet only once, he would receive grace from My infinite mercy...”

The Hour of Mercy.

Our Lord asked for special prayer and meditation on His passion each afternoon at the three o'clock hour, the hour that recalls His death on the cross. Our Lord said, “At three o'clock, implore My mercy, especially for sinners; and, if only for a brief moment, immerse yourself in My Passion, particularly in My abandonment at the moment of agony. This is the hour of great mercy... In this hour I will refuse nothing to the soul that makes a request of Me in virtue of My passion. (...)”

The Image.

In 1931 Our Lord granted a vision to Saint Faustina with two rays emanating from His heart, one red and the other pale. As she gazed intently at Him, He said to her, “Paint an image according to the pattern you see with the signature: Jesus, I Trust in You... I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over its enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory ... I desire that this image be venerated throughout the world. By means of this image I shall grant many graces to souls. (...) The two rays denote blood and water. The pale ray stands for the Water, which makes souls righteous. The red ray stands for the Blood, which is the life of souls. These two rays issued forth from the very depths of My tender mercy when My agonized Heart was opened by a lance on the cross. These rays shield souls from the wrath of My Father. Happy is the one who will dwell in their shelter, for the just hand of God shall not lay hold of Him.”

How are we to remember the message of Mercy? By the ABC's.

- A. Ask for His mercy.
- B. Be merciful.
- C. Completely trust in Jesus.
