Today's readings remind us why we honour the Vicar of Christ, the Pope. We don't honour him for the individual he is. We don't honour Jorge Mario Bergoglio. We honour Pope Francis, a man who has been entrusted with the Keys of the Kingdom. In the recent centuries we have been blessed with popes who were certainly holy men. Blessed Pius IX, St. Pius X, St. John XXIII and St. John Paul II all gave us examples of how to live our Christianity. These men were intensely spiritual throughout their lives, not just as popes. They were beatified and canonized for the way they lived their Christianity, not for the way they exercised their authority. Other popes may not be candidates for canonization, but they all were holy fathers, entrusted with the keys to the Kingdom.

We pray today for our Holy Father, so that he may lead the people of God to heaven according to God's will.

SANCTUARY LAMP: This week's Sanctuary Lamp is donated in memory of Marie Altagrace Frazilia abosolu. The Sanctuary lamp is lit to remind us of Christ's presence in the Blessed Sacrament of the Altar.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for the Month of August

We pray the World Youth Day in Lisbon will help young people to live and witness the Gospel in their own lives.
