Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen!

We are called to be witnesses to Christ in this world, to acknowledge him in front of others! It takes tremendous courage to give witness to Christ. Perhaps we don't have to be afraid of being put to death for Christ as so many of the martyrs were, or as so many Christians still are in territories ruled or marked by radical Islam, radical Hindi, etc. But we certainly risk being seriously hurt by the most influential people we might know.

Standing for the Lord, being His Witness, will trigger the worst in those who cannot understand why we should be serious in allowing God to determine our lives. Sure, they will go to Church and give lip service to their faith, but when it comes to living that faith, they simply don't. And they cannot stand a person who refuses to join their immoral lifestyle. The person who does not sleep around, get drunk or doped, who is faithful to marriage, who does an honest day's work, etc. etc. is an abomination to those who engage in some if not all of these. So, what do they do? They slander the just to destroy the person's reputation.

They think they have us, these so-called friends. They think they know us, but they don't. They know that it is natural to be concerned with what others are saying about us. But they don't know that is not our main concern. Our main concern is being witnesses for Jesus Christ. Our main concern is to please God, not people.

And so, like Jeremiah in today's first reading, we trust in the Lord to protect us. Jesus said in today's Gospel: "Fear no one." Instead, proclaim from the housetops what you have heard. Don't be concerned with those who can destroy your body, but not your soul. Be concerned with losing your soul, for the sake of protecting your standing with these forces of darkness.

Do not be concerned if people call you names because you have the courage to live your faith. Don't be concerned if people make stories up about you because what they really want to do is deflect attention away from their own shortcomings. Instead, recognize this, when we stand with God we stand with the Victor. Jesus Christ will win the battle. After all, our battle as witnesses is His battle.

Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father.

We are worth more than many sparrows. Our Heavenly Father cares for us. His Son loves us. His Spirit fills us. Sure, it is a normal reaction to be concerned with what others are saying about us. Sure, we are all afraid of being the topic of other people's jokes. We hate being mocked. But we have to recognize that good is always going to be opposed by evil. We cannot be afraid. When we stand up for that, which is right and true, the Lord will win the battles for us. Maybe we might not get that promotion we want. Maybe we might not be part of the in-crowd. But it is infinitely better to be part of the in-heaven crowd than the in-crowd on earth.

Not a sparrow falls to the ground without our Father's knowledge. God is aware of our commitment to His Life. He is aware that we are His Witnesses. All we need to do is to proclaim the truth of the Lord and let God do the rest.

Fr. Janusz Roginski, S.A.C.

XII DOMENICA DEL TEMPO ORDINARIO / A
S. Luigi Gonzaga, S. Rodolfo, B. Tommaso da Orvieto
21 giugno 2026

Cristo ci dice: «Non abbiate paura». Esiste un bene più grande della vita biologica: la vita eterna; e un male peggiore della morte fisica: perdere Dio. Il cristiano professa la sua fede con coraggio, perché crede che il Padre custodisce, già ora, la sua vita per l'eternità.

Prayer to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

O most holy heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins, I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.
